

LEGISLATIVE

Possible winners	Marais, Gironde, Feuillant
Govt is controlled by	Feuillant or Gironde. Government changes by vote of confidence or internal coup.
Upon installation	Starts game.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Sans-Culottes, Mountain, Royalists.
When Elections Are Held	Turn 4 and 8.
Electing deputies	• Feuillant: 1 deputy per controlled region. • Marais: 1 deputy per controlled or neutral region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round down). • Gironde: 1 deputy per controlled region + 1 deputy for every two Mountain regions (round down). • Royalist: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up) • Mountain: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions+ 1 deputy for every two Sans-Culotte regions (round down). • Sans-Culotte: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up)
Who can propose laws?	One per faction, 50 assignats each proposal.
Voting on laws	Majority of deputies. The King's faction breaks ties.
The King	Cannot be tried– he is not imprisoned. The King's Faction can release from prison any Royalist or Feuillant.
Justice	Majority of deputies. The King's faction breaks ties.
Special	If not in prison, King may veto an anti-Clergy law. If so, the Commune marker moves +3 and Dissident Clergy –3. TheKing's Faction loses 2 Fame. If not in prison, King may veto an anti-Privilege law. If so, the Commune marker moves +3 and Dissident Clergy –3.

CONVENTION

Possible winners	Marais, Gironde, Mountain
Govt is controlled by	Gironde
Upon installation	• Free Government Personalities from prison. • Allied armies activate. • King is imprisoned. • Dissident Clergy: +3; Coalition: +3. • Conduct elections. • Set Govt Fame = 10, if lower. • Arrest all Personalities of outlawed Factions in Paris.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Royalist, Feuillant, Sans-Culotte
When Elections Are Held	At installation then 4 Turns later.
Electing deputies	• Gironde: 1 deputy per controlled region + 1 deputy for every two Feuillant regions (round down). • Marais: 1 deputy per controlled or neutral region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round up). • Mountain: 1 deputy per controlled region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round down). • Royalist: None. • Feuillant: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up). • Sans-Culotte: 1 deputy per controlled region.
Who can propose laws?	One per faction, 50 assignats each proposal.
Voting on laws	Roll on faction's Fame: A or B : Law passed. C : –1 to faction's Fame. Modifiers: Marais : ± 2. Controller of Commune : ± 3 Each other faction : ± 1
The King	Can be tried if he has not been tried before.
Justice	Roll on Government's Fame: Royalists : A or B - Guillotine. C - In prison. Others : A or B - In prison. C - Released.

TERROR

Possible winners	Marais, Mountain, Sans-Culottes
Govt is controlled by	Mountain
Upon installation	• Free Government Personalities from prison. • Allied armies activate. • King is imprisoned. • Dissident Clergy: +3 • Coalition: +3. • Every Gironde region is in revolt. • Set Govt Fame = 10, if lower. • Arrest all Personalities of outlawed Factions in Paris.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Royalist, Feuillant, Gironde.
When Elections Are Held	Follow timetable as though regime had not changed.
Electing deputies	• Gironde: None. • Marais: 1 deputy per controlled or neutral region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round up). • Mountain: 1 deputy per controlled region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round down). • Royalist: None. • Feuillant: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up). • Sans-Culotte: 1 deputy per controlled region.
Who can propose laws?	Up to 3 by the Government.
Voting on laws	Roll on Government's Fame: A or B : Law passed. C : -1 to faction's Fame. Marais : ± 2. Controller of Commune : ± 3 Other faction : ± 1 Robespierre and Sant-Just give +1 each, for one law each. Must be in Paris.
The King	• Can be tried as often as needed until found guilty.
Justice	Roll on Government's Fame: A or B - Guillotine. C - In prison.
Special	• +2 Fame bonus for the actions Suppress a Revolt or Arrest in a region occupied by Billaud-Varenne, d'Herbois or Barere (Terrorists). • Carnot may command an army, giving ±1 to roll.

THERMIDOR

Possible winners	Marais, Gironde, Feuillant
Govt is controlled by	Marais
Upon installation	• Free Marais, Gironde, Feuillant Personalities from prison • Set Govt Fame = 10, if lower. • Arrest all Personalities of outlawed Factions in Paris.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Royalist, Mountain, Sans Culottes
When Elections Are Held	Follow timetable as though regime had not changed.
Electing deputies	• Gironde: 1 deputy per controlled region + 1 deputy for every two Feuillant regions (round down). • Marais: 1 deputy per controlled or neutral region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round up). • Mountain: None. • Royalist: None. • Feuillant: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up). • Sans-Culotte: None.
Who can propose laws?	Up to 3 by the Government.
Voting on laws	Majority of deputies.
The King	Can be tried as often as needed until found guilty, provided the Marais finds him guilty. Once the Marais votes Innocent he can no longer be tried in this regime.
Justice	Roll on Government's Fame: A or B - Guillotine. C - In prison.
Special	At the end of each Turn a referendum to install the Directorate must be held. Each faction votes using number of regions controlled.

DIRECTORATE

Possible winners	Marais, Gironde, Feuillant
Govt is controlled by	Marais and one partner of Feuillant, Gironde or Mountain (if not outlawed). A different partner can join Marais by vote of confidence or internal coup.
Upon installation	• Hold elections. • Set Govt Fame = 10, if lower. • Arrest all Personalities of outlawed Factions in Paris.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Royalist. Mountain and/or Sans-Culottes are arrestable if they were outlawed in the previous regime.
When Elections Are Held	Upon installation, then 4 Turns later.
Electing deputies	• Gironde: 1 deputy per controlled region. • Marais: 1 deputy per controlled or neutral region and 1 deputy for every two Mountain regions (round up). • Feuillant: 1 deputy per controlled region. • Royalist: 1 deputy per controlled region + 1 deputy for every 2 Sans-Culottes regions. • Mountain: 1 deputy per controlled region (round up). • Sans-Culottes: 1 deputy per controlled region (round up).
Who can propose laws?	Up to 3 by the Government.
Voting on laws	Majority of deputies.
The King	Cannot be tried.
Justice	Majority of deputies. Government decides ties.
Special	• Government decisions (actions, armies) are made by the two factions jointly. Indecision is resolved by a die roll. A faction not in government can modify one side's die by + 2. • The Commune can be raised or suppressed by the Royalists with a –4 malus.

FIRST REPUBLIC

Possible winners	Marais, Gironde, Mountain
Govt is controlled by	Gironde or Marais. Government changes by vote of confidence or internal coup.
Upon installation	• Dissident Clergy: +3 • Coalition : +3 • Hold elections • Set Govt Fame = 10, if lower. • Arrest all Personalities of outlawed Factions in Paris.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Royalist, Feuillant, Sans-Culottes
When Elections Are Held	Upon installation and every four Years.
Electing deputies	• Gironde: 1 deputy per controlled region + 1 deputy for every two Feuillant regions (round down). • Marais: 1 deputy per controlled or neutral region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round up). • Mountain: 1 deputy for every two controlled regions and 1 deputy for every two Sans-Culottes regions (round down). • Feuillant: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up). • Royalist: 1 deputy per 2 controlled regions (round up).
Who can propose laws?	One per faction, 50 assignats each proposal.
Voting on laws	Majority of deputies.
The King	Cannot be tried.
Justice	Majority of deputies.
Special	Only the Gironde can control Bordeaux.

2ND TERROR (PRAIRIAL)

Possible winners	Marais, Mountain, Sans-Culottes
Govt is controlled by	Mountain or Sans Culottes. Government changes by vote of confidence or internal coup.
Upon installation	• Free Government Personalities from prison. • Dissident Clergy: +3 • Coalition : +3
Factions in the National Assembly	Mountain, Sans-Culottes.
Outlaws (Personalities can be arrested, and can start Revolts)	Royalist, Feuillant, Gironde, Marais
When Elections Are Held	Hold elections on installation if Prairial follows Directorate. Otherwise, follow existing schedule.
Electing deputies	• Gironde: None. • Marais: None. • Mountain: 1 deputy per controlled region and 1 deputy for every two Royalist regions (round down). • Royalist: None. • Feuillant: None. • Sans-Culotte: 1 deputy per controlled region.
Who can propose laws?	Up to 3 by the Government.
Voting on laws	Roll 2 dice against Fame. Pass law on A or B. A C causes –1 to Government's Fame. Controller of Commune : ± 3 The other faction in the Assembly : ± 1
The King	Can be tried as often as needed until found guilty.
Justice	Roll on Government's Fame: A or B - Guillotine. C - Released.
Special	• At the end of each Turn a referendum to install the First Republic must be held. Each Faction votes with the number of regions controlled. • The Commune can be raised or suppressed by the Royalists with a –4 malus.
	• Special stuff