

La Revolution Francaise

I. Initial Phase

A. Negotiations Segment

B. Random Events Segment

Roll for one random event in each category.

C. Game Order Segment

Government always plays first.

Order of factions is: Fame + No. of regions controlled

D. Personality Placement Segment

You have to have a Personality in Paris–

(i) If you control the Government

(ii) To persuade Deputies to change sides

You must have a Personality in any region you want to do a regional action in.

Personalities are safer from arrest in regions they control, and regions they have influence in.

II. Action Phase

Conduct each segment in faction order.

Roll 1,1: Faction loses –1 Fame

Roll 6,6: Faction gains +1 Fame

Note: All die roll modifiers are Fame modifiers.

A. Personality Action Segment

- Arrest an arrestable Personality [Government only].
- Remove a Personality from a friendly region [Outlawed factions only].
- Persuade a Personality to change sides.

See charts.

B. Regional Action Segment

A friendly Personality must be present in region.

One action per Personality.

Personalities can combine modifiers.

- Control a region
- Revolt
- Faction suppresses a revolt
- Raise Commune
- Suppress Commune

Only Royalists can undertake actions in an Coalition military region.

You can also suppress a region or the Commune using an army.

C. Political Action Segment

- Government suppresses a revolt
- Persuade deputies to change side
- Pass a law

See charts.

D. New Regime Segment

Regime may change if preconditions are met.

Preconditions and effects vary be-

III. Patriots Phase

A. Justice Segment

Roll for each imprisoned Personality.

Effects vary between regimes.

B. Change of Government Segment

Legislative, First Republic, Directorate only

Attempting Faction must have a Personality in Paris.

1. By Vote of Confidence

Hold vote of confidence in the faction controlling the government.

If it fails, the alternative government faction takes control.

2. By Internal Coup

Cost = 100

+2: Fame bonus for each additional Personality in Paris.

Roll 2 dice against faction's Fame.

-1 each Personality in Paris: Other factions

A (Success): Faction takes government. +1 Faction's Fame. -1 loser's fame.

B or C (Failure): Personalities involved are imprisoned. -1 to fame.

IV. Military Phase

A. Reinforcements Segment

1. Coalition armies

Activate (declare war)–

(i) When the Convention or Terror is installed

(ii) When Coalition track = III or more.

(iii) When the Government declares war.

Place:

Sardinian: Marseille

Spain: Montpellier & Toulouse

English fleet: Marseille, if Marseilles is Royalist

Quiberon: Brest or Nantes, if either is Royalist

Coburg: Lille

Brunswick: Metz

Wurmster: Strasbourg

York: Lille

War ends when the Coalition marker moves to Level 1.

2. Royalist armies

Can be placed when Dissident Clergy track = III.

Royal armies appear in the Vendee. One Royalist general must be present.

Can only be raised once.

Creates a state of civil war (affects random events & some laws)

3. Revolutionary

Raised by passing laws. The may be placed in any non-hostile, non-revolting region.

B. Maintenance Segment

100 each. Coalition armies are free. Government pays for Revolutionary armies. Royalist pays for Royalist armies.

C. Movement Segment

Commune will raise (as a neutral) if an enemy army enters Paris.

Armies must stop on encountering an enemy.

1. Coalition

Remain in a region until they gain military control.

Other armies do not move.

Can move through Coalition/Royalist controlled regions freely, otherwise one region.

Can prevent a revolutionary army from leaving by declaring combat will occur.

- Coburg: Lille–Amiens–Paris–Orleans–Rouen
- Brunswick: Metz–Paris
- Wurmster: Strasbourg–Dijon–Paris–Dijon–Lyon
- Quiberon: Moves to Paris if allied army controls it.

2. Royalist

Can move through Coalition/Royalist controlled regions freely, otherwise one region.

Royalist armies cannot leave Vendee without a Royalist general.

3. Revolutionary

Can move any number of regions.

An army ending its move in a region suppresses any revolt there. Control is unchanged.

Can send an army into Paris to combat and hence suppress the Commune. Place in Paris box to do so (as opposed to Paris region). Commune level goes to 20. Political control is unchanged.

D. Combat Segment

Attacker is side with most armies. Otherwise roll die.

Roll on 13-14 Fame column.

- A: One defender eliminated.
- B: No effect.
- C: One attacker eliminated.

Player with more armies get ± 1 Fame modifier per extra army.

A Royalist army led by a Royalist general can avoid combat in the Vendee, but automatically loses control.

If a Royal army (alone) wins a combat, Royal faction gets +1 to Fame.

E. Military Control Segment

Determine military control = Last army to occupy.

Coalition/Royalist control removes an existing control marker.

Royalist military control gives Royalist political control.

Only the Royalist can undertake regional actions in an Coalition region. He has +2 Fame bonus for this.

F. Coup Segment

Cost = 200

Faction must have a Personality in Paris.

In certain circumstances, a coup to change the regime may occur.

Roll 2 dice against faction's Fame.

A (Success): Faction takes government. Commune is +3

B or C (Failure): Personalities involved are imprisoned. Faction is outlawed. Set aside their Deputies. If the faction controlled the Commune, the Commune is neutralised. Commune is -3.

See 'Installing a New Regime' above.

+2: Fame bonus for each additional Personality in Paris.

-1 each Personality in Paris: Other factions

V. Interphase

A. Inflation

Add +1 to Economy Track for every 1000 spent this Turn.

B. Faction Income Segment

Each faction receives income. Income comes from regions.

Royalist gets Coalition money.

Minimum income = $100 + \text{No. personalities} \times 50$.

Do not count imprisoned or exiled Personalities.

C. Government Income Segment

Return any leftover funds to the bank.

Receive 2,500 less value of each region in revolt or under Royalist/Coalition control.

Minimum income = 500.

If the Government goes bankrupt in the Turn:

-2 to Government's Fame

-5 to Fame of the faction controlling Govt
